ALL ARE WORKING FOR GOOD ROADS

Delegation in Congress in Sympathy With Wishes of Their Constituents.

GOVERNMENT

It Is Recalled That Flood Introduced Bill Looking Toward

Federal Appropriation. Times-Dispatch Bureau Washington D. C., Jan. 26.
The Virginia delegation in Washington, almost to a man, is interested in the agitation for good roads in the State. It is realized that the people are becoming aroused on the sub-ject.

Sinte. It is realized that the people are becoming aroused on the subject.

Many Southern Representatives balieve that the Federal government should help improve the highways. One of the leaders in this thought is Representative H. D. Flood of the Teath Virginia District, who, in the House on the 2d of December, 1907, introduced the following bill: "Be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury at the end of each fiscal year to take an account of all the funds in the Treasury of the United States, and after, deducting from said sum the amounts required by law to be kept in said Treasury, the remainder, if any, shall be declared a surplus:

"That it shall be the duty of the Secretary to immediately provide for the distribution of said surplus, not exceeding $25,000,000 annually, during the continuance of this law on a perceptia basis to the States, to be computed from the last general census taken by the national authorities, and shall prorate the same accordingly for the sole purpose of improving the postal roads in said States, under such immediately notify the Governors of said States the amounts due each, and that the same will be paid over to such person or persons as may be duly authorized by said States to receive and receipt for the same.

"That it shall be the duty of the "Th that the same will be paid over to such person or persons as may be duly authorized by said States to receive and receipt for the same.

"That it shall be the duty of the Governors of the several States to make a full and complete report to the Secretary of the Treasury on the 15th day of November of each year what legislation, rules, and regulations have been adopted for the expenditure of said funds upon the postal roads, the manner in which the same has been spent, and the results accomplished. And it shall be the duty of the said Secretary to submit said reports to Congress on the first day of each regular session."

Many Favor Hill.

Speaking on his bill, Mr. Flood said in the House, on the 28th of last March: "I believe the people all over this country are in favor of this bill. I know they are in the State which I have the honor in part to represent, and in evidence of this fact I submit a joint resolution adopted by the Legislature of Virginia, in which other members of Congress from my State are urged to support it.

"Under this bill Virginia would get, approximately, $508,546, and every other State, Territory and the District of Columbia, its part," he declared.

"Under it the counties in my district would get the following sums: Alleghany, $5,337; Amherst, $5,336; Appomattox, $2,147; Augusta, $1,2985; Bath, $1,904; Betetourt, $5,609; Buckingham, $4,985; Craig, $1,377; Cumberland, $2,952; Fluvanna, $2,952; Highland, $1,835; Nelson, $5,248, and Hockbridge, $7,906.

"If this bill becomes a law it would tend to increase immensely and in augmenting ratio the value of the land, the only intrinse and enduring value. The benefits would be manifold. Our resources would be augmented greatly, our educational facilities increased, intercourses made easier, agriculture

The benefits would be manifold. Our resources would be augmented greatly, our educational facilities increased, intercourses made easier, agriculture carried on more systematically, and it would help to infuse intelligence generally, and make our people burn with patriotic pride."

Mr. Flood had made a me claborate speech on the same subject in February, 1907. He went into more detail and dwelt more at length on each point in favor of the proposition.
